

The entry card is filled out and the pink copy is taped securely to the plate. We tape only the pink copy because the white and yellow copies will be torn off.

The entry card is filled out and the pink copy is taped securely this large, individual item. We tape only the pink copy because the white and yellow copies will be torn off.

The entry card is filled out and a string is threaded through the hole. The sting is either taped to the exhibit (left) or tied around the vase (right).

The photos are for example only and not necessarily appropriate exhibits