

Scholarship Application for the 2023 International Master Gardeners Conference

The Executive Board has approved the funding of 5 scholarships for the 2023 International Master Gardener Conference. The value of each scholarship will be $200. If you wish to be considered for a scholarship, complete the application below and return it to Jeff Petersen (jpeterse@wvu.edu) by 09/01/2022. A subcommittee will then review the applications and make recommendations to the Executive Board for approval. The expectation for receipt of this scholarship is that you present a talk to the Extension Master Gardeners or to the community on a topic that you learned about during the conference. The presentation should be scheduled within one year following your attendance at the conference.
